NJMC Flyway Gallery Hosts Art Association of Rutherford 65th Annual Open Juried Exhibition in October and November

LYNDHURST, N.J. – The Art Association of Rutherford will hold its 65th Annual Open Juried Exhibition at the New Jersey Meadowlands Commission (NJMC) Flyway Gallery in the Meadowlands Environment Center from Oct. 1 through Nov. 30. An awards reception for the environmentally themed show is scheduled for Oct. 14 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

“The NJMC congratulates the Art Association of Rutherford on its 65th year of promoting local artists whose works reflect the natural beauty of the Meadowlands,” said Marcia Karrow, Executive Director of the NJMC. “The Commission is pleased to host this juried show and invites residents to enjoy their neighbors’ artistic talents.”

The exhibit features more than 40 works that will be judged in five categories: Oils/Acrylics, Watercolors, Photography, Mixed Media and Computer Manipulated Art. The Art Association of Rutherford was chartered in 1947 to develop and encourage an interest in the arts. While members of the association live throughout Northern New Jersey, more than 75 percent are from the Meadowlands area and consider the region a source of inspiration.

The Flyway Gallery is open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, excluding holidays. The Environment Center is located in DeKorte Park, an urban oasis encompassing one-square-mile of wetlands, water views and nature trails. The park is a great place for bird watching and enjoying nature.

Directions to DeKorte Park are available in the “About Us” section of the NJMC’s website, at www.njmeadowlands.gov, or by calling (201) 777-2431.
