NJMC Flyway Gallery Hosts Art Association of Rutherford's 66th Annual Open Juried Exhibition in October and November

LYNDHURST, N.J. – The New Jersey Meadowlands Commission's (NJMC) Flyway Gallery is hosting the Art Association of Rutherford's 66th Annual Open Juried Exhibition, now through Friday, Nov. 29. An awards reception is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 13, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

"The NJMC congratulates the Art Association of Rutherford on its 66th year of promoting local artists and the variety of great works in this year's show," said Marcia Karrow, Executive Director of the NJMC. "We invite residents to visit the Flyway Gallery to enjoy their neighbors' artistic talents."

The exhibit features three-dozen pieces that fall into five categories: Oil/Acrylic, Watercolor, Photography, Computer Manipulated Art and Other Media. Works range from photographs and paintings of nature scenes and wildlife to pastel portraits. The artists include residents of Carlstadt, East Rutherford, Lyndhurst, North Arlington, Rutherford and Little Ferry.

The Art Association of Rutherford was chartered in 1947 to develop and encourage an interest in the arts. While members of the association live throughout Northern New Jersey, more than 75 percent are from the Meadowlands area and consider the region a source of inspiration.

The Flyway Gallery is located in the Meadowlands Environment Center in DeKorte Park, the home of the NJMC. The gallery is open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, excluding holidays.

Directions to DeKorte Park can be found in the "About Us" section of the NJMC's website, at www.njmeadowlands.gov, or by calling (201) 460-8300.
